SENIOR ADMINISTRATION

Dr. E. Keith Stotts, President and Chief Executive Officer, is responsible for the overall administration of the university; he makes final recommendations to the board of trustees regarding curriculum, budget, tuition and fees, university policies, and other global issues affecting the university. Dr. Stotts also leads the university's strategic planning.

Dr. Joy Jones, Provost and Chief Financial Officer, oversees academic affairs, finances, academic records, business office, faculty, library, and student life. Dr. Jones is also a key contributor to the university's strategic planning.

Charlie Morris, Chief of Staff, coordinates the activities of the president and oversees admissions and the president's cabinet.

Dr. Kathy Butler, Special Assistant to the President (on leave of absence), advises the president on matters related to assessment, accreditation, and other related issues; initiates and directs projects under the president's direction; and oversees and provides leadership to address university goals, policies, and strategic directives.

Cecelia Goff, Vice President of Support Services, oversees the services that encompass and support the entire university.
