SPRING SEMESTER CLASSES BEGIN MONDAY, JANUARY 9, 2017.
THE PROGRAM IS ALL ONLINE AND VERY AFFORDABLE!

WHO IS ELIGIBLE FOR OUR MASTER OF EDUCATION PROGRAM?

- Certified teachers desiring a Master's Degree in Curriculum & Instruction.
- Individuals with a bachelor's degree working with professional development or continuing education.

DESCRIPTION OF OUR MASTER OF EDUCATION PROGRAM:

- NON-CERTIFICATION: This fully accredited master's program does not lead to teacher certification/licensure. It is designed for teachers who are already certified.
- NON-THESIS: No mandatory culminating thesis for this program. There is instead a "capstone course" EDUC 645 Research in Instructional Design which includes an Instructional Design Project.
- ONLINE CLASSES: All courses offered online using Sakai online management system. The 36-hour program is designed to be completed in 24 months.
- TRANSFER CREDIT: Students may transfer up to 9 credit hours to the program with permission of the chair of the School of Graduate Education. Graduate transcripts may be submitted for evaluation to see if previous graduate courses taken might equate to requirements in OVU's program.
- BEGIN ASAP: Students may join the program at the beginning of any grading period in the sequence of courses.
- INDIVIDUAL ATTENTION: A personalized schedule of classes will be created for each cohort of students and will be evaluated each grading period
- COST: The cost is a very affordable $380 PER SEMESTER HOUR!

COURSEWORK:

Each course is 3 credit hours. Each full time student will take 2 classes per grading period. However, students may enroll in 1, 2, or 3 courses each grading period (fall, spring, summer). Financial aid is available for students taking at least 2 classes per semester. With permission, students may take 3 courses in each of 4 consecutive grading periods (3-track) and finish in 16 months.
